

EMPLOYMENT WITH QSI

- QUALITY SCHOOLS INTERNATIONAL -

Are you a certified and experienced educator who is interested in working in a mastery learning, competency-based environment? Do you have a passion for teaching and a belief that the students you work with can be successful under the right set of classroom and school conditions? Are you flexible and willing to take on new challenges? If you are all of the above, then we invite you to complete a QSI application at www.qsi.org. Once QSI responds to your application, email teach@qsi.org to let us know which QSI Recruiting Fair you would like to be invited to attend.

QSI Recruiting Fairs are by invitation only. Please do not book any hotels or flights until QSI sends you an invitation to attend a QSI Recruiting Fair. Each teacher, counselor or administrator hired at a QSI Recruiting Fair (not Search, ISS, GRC or UNI) will be credited with a $300 stipend to help cover travel expenses to the event.

At the Summer QSI Recruiting Fairs, QSI will be interviewing educators for any last minute 2020-2021 school year positions that come available and for positions for the 2021-2022 school year. Email teach@qsi.org if you are interested in being interviewed by QSI in July 2020.

QUALITY SCHOOLS INTERNATIONAL

Quality Schools International (QSI), a non-profit foundation, receives invitations to open schools from embassies, businesses, and agencies around the world. QSI responds to the needs of expatriates and host country nationals seeking a quality, progressive, English-language, North American style, international education. QSI has 37 international schools in 31 countries.

Quality Schools International is committed to the safety and protection of children. We believe that it is imperative that children are provided with a safe and secure environment in which to develop, thrive, and be successful. As such, it is expected that all QSI employees follow our comprehensive child safety and protection plan, and agree to the QSI Code of Conduct.
